

Name: _____

Communications Worksheet

For one day, keep a log below in which you describe your communication activities. Keep track of the time and different ways you spend communicating, such as talking person-to-person, listening to your teachers or the radio, watching television, reading books, and other print media, and communicating online.

Time

Type of communication activity